

Your local Conservative Councillors

Councillor Nigel Dawkins
Tel : 459 9261
Nigel.Dawkins@birmingham.gov.uk

Councillor Tim Huxtable
Tel : 303 2130
Timothy.Huxtable@birmingham.gov.uk

Councillor Bill Evans
Tel : 303 2130
Bill.Evans@birmingham.gov.uk

A Public Meeting
To Discuss TESCO's Plans to Sell
Alcohol at the new TESCO Express site being Built on Linden Road

At 3pm, Sunday, 25th February 2007,
The United Reform Church, Beaumont Road.

Dear resident,

You may already be aware that TESCO are currently converting the old petrol station on Linden Road into a TESCO Express site. This will be a site that sells a full range of foodstuffs and petrol from 7am until 10:30pm.

However, TESCO have also recently put in an application to the City Council for permission to sell alcohol once this site is reopened.

This is something that your local Councillors are opposed to. We believe that the selling of alcohol from such a site may lead to underage sales to young people and may lead to an increase in anti social behaviour in the area fuelled by alcohol from this site.

We have organised a public meeting at the United Reform Church on Beaumont Road to hear the views of local residents.

We look forward to welcoming you on Sunday.

Yours sincerely,

Nigel Dawkins

Councillor Nigel Dawkins